OPEN EVERY DAY Rise Up – 6am-7pm 25 Market Space Annapolis, MD 21401 PH: 443-949-0024 ABOUT US Rise Up Coffee has been an independent small batch coffee roastery and retailer since March 2005. Rise Up originated with an explosive combination of ambition and circumstance. Tim Cureton had a life-changing coffee experience when he traveled home from the Peace Corps. Her love affair with good coffee had begun. Cureton opened the first Rise Up Coffee using a $16,000 corporate loan along with founder Abby West. Rise Up started as a coffee drama before there were TV shows and movies about food trucks. What started in the parking lot of 1,029 residents has evolved into five high volume café stations, a very active online store and many new exciting wholesale relationships. Rise Up is known for its people. Now staffed by more than 100 amazing people is Tim's lifelong friend and business partner Noah Kegley, who joined the company in 2010 and now serves as Head Roaster. In 2012, Rise Up opened a coffee roastery in Easton. The artfully renovated space at the former gas station, built in the 1920s, was designed to show the coffee world from harvest to cup. The diversity of coffee cultures and the complexity of taste are on display every day. Rise Up is dedicated only to roasting sustainable coffees certified organic + certified fair trade. This decision is not based on buzz words or marketing, but literally on our love for our farmers and their families. This, as far as we know, is the best tasting coffee at least in the Mid-Atlantic region and now in Rehoboth Beach. The staff is both very helpful if you are what to get, and effective in dealing with the crowd during their busy times.... We don't know the secret of their on-site cooking, but their coffee doesn't taste nearly as good when we do it at home. I guess we'll have to come back.
